REGULATIONS AND BOOTH POLICIES

Pages 4 and Page 5 are yours to keep for reference.

Originality: All work displayed must be designed and created by the exhibitor. All work must be original work; handmade.

Cancellation policy & rights reserved: Once an artist has been confirmed, there will be no refunds due to cancellations for any reason. The festival committee reserves the right to assign artist locations in the best interest of the Festival and reassign booths due to artist cancellations or no-show. No-shows are those artists who have not set up their assigned booths by opening times each day. Festival hours are Saturday, Feb. 4, 2023: 9:00 am to 6:00 pm, Sunday, Feb. 5, 2023: 10:00 am to 4:00 pm.

Altercations: An artist or performer who is involved in any verbal or physical altercations will be immediately removed from the Festival site along with their art and not permitted to return. No refunds will be made.

Location & temperature: This open-air Festival is held in the Scottsdale Civic Mall, Scottsdale, 3939 N Drinkwater Blvd AZ 85251. Temperatures range from 70 degrees in the daytime to 45 degrees at night. A jacket or coat is advisable to have on hand.

Booth occupancy: All confirmed artists must be present during Festival hours. No more than two exhibitors per booth. If you sell out before the end of the Festival, please notify the Arts and Crafts committee who will be located at the information booth.

Fulfillment of orders: Any artist who does not fulfill prepaid orders by customers on a timely basis risk not being invited to future events.

Early check-in: Artists are encouraged to stop at Artist Check-in on Friday, February 03, 2023, from 2pm to 5pm.

Regulations: Artists participating in the Festival must follow the Indian Arts and Crafts Acts of 1990, a truth-in-advertising law that protects the customers, American Indian artist, craftspeople, businesses, and tribes. All artists are required to sell their own work and items displayed must be properly identified in accordance with Festival Rules and Standards.

Sales Tax: If an artist does not already have their AZ TPT license, you need to apply to AZ Revenue Department (azdor.gov) and complete the TPT form listed under the business link. There is a page which lists cities and artists need to check off the City of Scottsdale. Overall, vendors who file complete and accurate applications can expect to receive their AZ TPT license within 5 business days.

Wrist bands and/or booth tickets: Artists must wear their Arizona Indian Festival wrist bands always during the Festival. HospitalityTent requires wrist this for access.

Security and waiver: Artists are responsible for their art and booth during the Festival. Security will be provided beginning Friday at 5:00 pm through Sunday until 8 am. The 2023 Arizona Indian Festival, its agents, employees or volunteers are not responsible for loss, damage, vandalism, casualty, injury or theft. No alcohol, illicit drugs or firearms are allowed on the Festival grounds. Artists will need to take down their area and pack up and out of the Festival grounds by 6:00 pm Sunday, February 5, 2023.

Pets prohibited: No pets allowed on the Arizona Indian Festival grounds, except dogs assisting visually handicapped persons. Artists bringing pets will be asked to leave the grounds and forfeit their booth space.

Parking: Artists must park in the available parking lot. There will be parking available early in the morning on Saturday and Sunday on a first come first serve basis.

Rules and standards: All art is subject to evaluation by a Festival representative throughout the Festival. The representative may request that any items not meeting the established standards be removed from display. If you are asked to remove an item, please do so immediately. Artists must properly identify all their work with their “mark.” All work at booth must be for sale.

Artist Success: AZ Indian Festival does not guarantee revenue for artists. In the event of online payment issues, artists are encouraged to bring alternative payment items such as knuckle busters or hot spots to help alleviate problems with running payment cards when customers are not making a cash transaction.

General: Absolutely no imported, manufactured, or mass-produced items, such as mouse pads, coasters and magnets. Also, not acceptable are works produced with commercial kits, molds, patterns or prefabricated forms.

Artifacts & ceremonial objects: Absolutely no sale or display of prehistoric or culturally sensitive artifacts. Festival representatives will carefully review and ban any use of such materials as raptor feathers or endangered species. Display or selling of ceremonial objects is strictly prohibited.

Pottery: Commercial pottery, slip molds, or green ware are strictly prohibited. Contemporary pottery forms are acceptable. Hand coiled or wheel thrown are acceptable. Kiln-fired pots and pots made or decorated with commercial materials must be properly identified.

Jewelry: Only handmade jewelry may be sold. Natural turquoise does not need special labeling. Stabilized turquoise must be properly labeled. No block (turquoise/epoxy resins and dye) fake turquoise, imitation stones, synthetic opal, machine-made components (except findings) can be used. Also, not allowed are non-American Indian made heishi, stamped fetishes, nickel silver, and liquid silver or plated metals. Tribes of those regions that have historically used it can use German silver.

Paintings & drawings: Paintings, drawings and graphics must be matted, framed or shrink-wrapped. No wet canvases will be available for sale. Paintings on canvas should be framed for its protection.
