

Kim Secakuku, is a member of the Hopi Tribe from the Village of Sipaulovi. She has more than 30 years' experience working with tribes in government relations, communications, and public relations. She has participated in tourism activities for the Hopi Tribe through the development of a Tourism information office, guided tours, and in public outreach and education on cultural tourism. Most recently, Kim assists with the Indian Village highlighting the Hopi people. Kim currently is a Tribal Advisor with Blue Stone Strategy Partners.

